AFTERNOON TEA

Advance booking is required.

Served 2.30pm–5.00pm.

Afternoon tea was introduced by Anna, the seventh Duchess of Bedford, in the year 1840. At the time it was usual for people to take only two main meals a day, breakfast, and a late dinner. The Duchess used to get pickish around four o'clock, so she started having a pot of tea and a light snack. Before long, all of fashionable society was sipping tea and nibbling sandwiches in the middle of the afternoon.
